A RICH TREAT FOR MUSIC LOVERS TONIGHT

The Smith Concert at the O. B. Union Congregational Church Splendidly Arranged.

A rich and rare treat is in store tonight for everybody in the way of fine singing and good music. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith have arranged a splendid program and a most enjoyable evening is promised. Don't forget the Smith concert tonight, Dec. 8th, at the Union Congregational church. Doors open at 7 o'clock, music commences at 7:30. There will be no entrance fee, but a silver collection will be taken in aid of the church. Children must be accompanied by their parents. The program will be as follows:

Organ solo by Mr. Smith.
Song, "My Dear Soul," Miss Steel.
Piano duet, "Bride's Song" by Jensen, Mrs. Sterling, Mrs. Morgan.
Song, "Thy Sentinel Am I," Mr. Smith.
Reading, Mr. Culmer.
Song, "The Mistletoe Bough," Mrs. Smith.
Organ solo, Mr. Smith.
Song, "Irish Lullaby," Miss Steel.
Piano duet, "Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Sterling."
Song, "Asleep in the Deep," Mr. Smith.
Reading, Mr. Culmer.
Song, "The Flight of Ages," Mrs. Smith.
Organ solo, Mr. Smith.
Duet, "Juanita," Mr. and Mrs. Smith.
Close by singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

MASQUERADE TONIGHT

Mrs. J. M. Harrison, president of the Friday Night Children's Dancing Club, announces there will be a masquerade dance tonight at the beautiful Garden of Eden. Special prizes will be given for boys and girls in the best character costume, the most comical and the fanciest dressed. Parents are especially invited.

A SPLENDID ORCHESTRA

About the best orchestra in this salubrious section of Southern California furnishes the entertainment and music for the members, guests and devotees of terpsichore at the Sunset Supper Club every night in the week.

The orchestra is composed of Leila Leslie Donaldson, pianist; Harold Donaldson, saxophone and drums; Walter Logan, singer and drums, and Leslie De Lines, saxophone and clarinet. Miss Corinne Ballard acts as a very capable hostess at the club, while "Doc" Mitchell faithfully looks after the interests of all.

OCEAN THEATRE

The new schedule of hours adopted by Manager Ericsson at the Ocean Theatre, seems to have caught the public's fancy, as well as his change in policy of showing one comedy, followed by a head-liner picture. The doors are now open a quarter of an hour earlier, 7:15 o'clock, to be exact, thus permitting the seating of all patrons in ample time for the big picture, and enabling them to get home at a more reasonable hour than formerly.

The Gamma Delta Sigma Club of Pacific Beach will meet this evening at the home of Miss Mollie Kerwin in Pacific Beach. Members will gather in the Community Service Club and arrange to go out together.

Kindly mention The Beach News in your dealings with the patrons of our advertising columns.

Pertinent and Personal

Marcel Dupre, organist of Notre Dame Cathedral of Paris, France, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by members of the San Diego chapter of the American Guild of Organists at the San Diego Hotel last Wednesday. Mrs. A. M. Morgan invited as her guests Mrs. Roy Close, Mrs. Carrie Borchardt, Mrs. Julia McGarvey, Mrs. Robert Sterling and Mrs. Helen McConaughy.

Mrs. Virginia Hill arrived from Pueblo, Colo., early this week to join her sister, Mrs. B. S. Hillyer, in conducting the Alligator Rock Lodge on Coronado avenue.

Mrs. J. T. Smith of Santa Monica will sing a solo Sunday evening at the Independent Spiritualist meeting at 744 F street, San Diego.

The Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce has been ordered by the City Council to get more signers to a petition asking that Voltaire street be paved its full width.

Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell of San Jose have rented the "Snuggly Bungalow" of the Wheeler group on Cable street.

Postmaster Rankin requests everyone to please mail their Christmas parcels and packages early to insure prompt delivery by your Uncle Sam acting as Santa Claus.

W. Brooks announces that the very best vegetables and fruits can be obtained daily at his popular grocery and dry goods store on Niagara avenue.

There's going to be a big surprise in the way of a Christmas tree for the thousands visiting the "Garden of Eden" during the forthcoming Christmas week.

FIRE! FIRE!! FIRE!!!

In the event of fire or any emergency requiring the services of the Ocean Beach Fire Department

Phone 622-44
calling the number slowly and distinctly, and above all things keep cool and don't get excited. The firemen are always on the alert and will readily respond to your call for assistance with the greatest alacrity, and their vigilance is only exceeded by their efficiency, diligence and fire-fighting ability. Trust them and your troubles will soon be over. Remember the fire call is 622-44.

Breezes and Wheezes

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler had a very pleasant surprise early this week, when a brother of Mrs. Wheeler's from Grants Pass, Ore., Henry E. Rosa, came to stay for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baranov of 5122 Saratoga avenue entertained recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stotskey of San Diego with an elaborate dinner, after which the entire party attended a dance.

W. E. Kingsbury and his wife have arrived from Indianapolis, Ind., and are visiting A. G. Kingsbury for the winter season at the latter's delightful home on Del Monte avenue. W. E. K. and A. G. K. are brothers and this is the first time they had seen each other in over ten years and only the third time they have met in forty years or more.

O. D. Tibbetts, traveling agricultural development agent of the Great Northern Railway, had who has had his headquarters at Sioux Falls, S. D., arrived here this week for an extended visit with his family at their home on Santa Monica avenue.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Katherine Will Take Subscriptions at Faber's Little Cash Grocery Tomorrow

For the convenience of prospective subscribers, our "Katherine," the Social Editor of The Beach News, will be at Faber's Little Cash Grocery store on Newport avenue, opposite the postoffice, tomorrow (Saturday, December 9), from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. She will be glad to receive all subscriptions, ads and news items. The subscription price is 50 cents a year in advance.

TIMELY TIPS ABOUT YOUR CHRISTMAS MAIL

Postmaster Rankins Issues Full Instructions to Help You in Mailing Yuletide Tokens.

Ever alert and efficient as the postmaster of Ocean Beach, H. K. Rankin has taken time by the forelock for the benefit of the local Santa Clauses by issuing the following warning and instructions toward facilitating the mailing of your Christmas tokens and Yuletide messages of remembrance:

"Each year, a great many children and grown people, too, are disappointed because their Christmas parcel does not reach them until after Christmas day, or else it comes to them in a damaged or worthless condition. This is an almost invariably to the time the package is mailed and the way it is wrapped and packed.

This year be sure to mail your parcels early so they will reach their destination before Christmas day. MAIL THEM NOW, and mark them, 'Do not open until Christmas.'

"Wrap well, address with a pen, tie them securely and insure them against loss or breakage. This costs very little, from 3c to 5c for each parcel as a rule. Write the address on the parcel before it is wrapped and also on the wrapper of the package. DO NOT write the address on slips of paper pasted on the package or on tags tied on with strings, as these often come off before parcel is delivered and your present is delayed and sometimes lost entirely.

"Whenever possible kindly present your Christmas parcels for mailing between the hours of 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. as the postoffice lobby is not so congested as it is at the time the mail is being received and distributed or dispatched. At this time of the day we are not so busy and can give you more time and attention than we can at mail time.

"We have provided for your convenience in the lobby of the postoffice a table, pens and ink and twine for tying your parcels and invite you to use them.

"We shall be glad to help you with suggestions as to wrapping and packing your parcels.

"Wrap and tie securely.

"Address plainly in ink.

"Put your return address on upper left hand corner.

"AND MAIL 'EM NOW!"

Special sale at Faber's Grocery Stores next Tuesday and Wednesday (December 12 and 13): One bar of Palm Olive Soap, 5 cents, limiting two bars to a customer. Adv.

G. D. Gammon is improving his property at the corner of Newport avenue and Abbott street with a new one-story office building, just in the rear of Morrison's Newport cafe and adjoining the Sunset Garage.

Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer died last Tuesday at her late residence, 1040 Rosecrans street, Roseville. She was a native of Missouri and aged 71 years.

Seen, Heard and Said

Frank Keady of Pacific Beach, was seen on our streets during the early part of the week. Come over often, Frank, and get brotherly.

The beautiful boat standing off shore during the week and so much admired by hundreds is a government boat taking soundings along the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill of National City motored here last week and were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Wheeler at Cable street and Orchard avenue.

A refuge for shore birds 'round Mission Bay has been arranged by the city council, a strip of land on the eastern part of Mission Bay being set aside as a sort of "sanctuary" for these birds, and no shooting will be permitted.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Straughan of Denver, Colo., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Donnelly.

Henry Eulberg, the popular proprietor of the Ocean Beach Garage, wants the auto public to know that he has added Chevrolet service to his equipment, besides having an authorized Ford depot. The wide-awake Henry also does welding, brazing and battery charging, his workshop being located on Newport avenue, just two blocks east of Benbough's dance pavilion.

Chris Homeyer, the busy bakerman of the Quality Grocery, made a hurried business trip to the Angel City last Wednesday. If Chris gets what he went for, he'll soon make things hum 'round the corner of Cable and Voltaire streets.

POLICE! POLICE!!

The Police Station is located on Abbott street, opposite the skating rink at the foot of Santa Monica avenue, and the phone number is

Point Loma 4.

Officer H. L. Reama is the patrolman for the Beach precinct. He lives at 4933 Voltaire street and his residence phone is

Point Loma 317-W.

It is not necessary to call the San Diego police department, as Officer Reama is always on the job and can be reached at any hour of the day or night by anyone needing the services of a policeman.

Flotsam and Jetsam

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hinman of Olive Wood Terrace, Mrs. Holmes of Sandy Point, Idaho; Miss Laura Roberts, Miss Laura Gibson and Miss Layton, nurses from the Navy Hospital at Balboa Park, motored out one day this week to watch the sunset at the Cliffs, afterwards visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Wheeler, where they had supper and spent a very jolly evening with music and story telling.

Charles H. Peltcher, our popular and progressive plumber, is moving to 5066-5068 Niagara avenue, where, besides his plumbing outfit, he will open a beautiful showroom, exhibiting all the latest bathroom and kitchen attachments. Mrs. Peltcher, as usual, will be there to greet you with her genial smile.

The song of the hammer goes rhythmically on 'round the Beaches these fine December days.

'PIONEER MAYOR' OF
NOME LIKES CLIMATE

Charles F. Rice Arrives Direct From Alaska and May Build Big Apartment House Here.

The "Pioneer Mayor" of Nome, Alaska, Charles F. Rice, and his wife, have just arrived here direct by steamer from Alaska. They made the trip all the way by boat, exchanging at Seattle from the famous old steamer Victoria to the Dorothy Alexander, which made port early this week.

Besides being the pioneer mayor of Nome, Mr. Rice was again the municipal executive of that far northern city for the last two years past and had lived there for over twenty years.

Mr. Rice owns considerable property here and it is said on good authority that he soon contemplates erecting a big apartment house around the Del Monte section on Bacon street, where he owns four fine corner lots.

Further mention of the details of the proposed improvement, as well as a very newsy story about Mr. Rice and Alaska, will be published next week in these columns.

REUNION OF THE WOODS

Mrs. Anna Wood has arrived here from San Rafael, Calif., on a visit to her son, Harry M. Wood, who lives on Narragansett avenue near Ebers street. Mrs. Wood motored down from her home and had a most trying trip, owing to the wretched detours and had the terrible experience of witnessing some half a dozen or more bad auto accidents on the way.

Some amusing as well as interesting details of the effort expended in locating the right Wood in this "neck of the woods" will be published next week in a special article. Suffice it to say for the present, the entire Wood family are happy in a most joyful reunion, and it is more than likely our welcome visitor from the north will locate here permanently.

BOOSTING BEACH PROPERTY

Some splendid literature boosting Beach property is being widely circulated by A. G. Kingsbury, a wide-awake realty man, with very attractive headquarters at Del Monte avenue and Bacon street. Here is a good sample of the way he tells the good news:

"Ocean Beach is not excelled on the Pacific Coast in natural advantages; also possesses water, light, gas, telephones, trolleys, sewers, newly-paved streets through to Broadway, new cement sidewalks, fine schools, churches, library, stores, etc. A very desirable residence suburb throughout the year. Comparatively low rents. Among other unique and up-to-the-minute rentals are the Alligator Rock Lodge and Del Monte Cottages, some having radio, lawns, shade trees, flowers and shrubbery. There are also some real bargains in vacant lots and improved properties."

TWO 100 PER CENT BABIES AT THE BEACH

June Rose Lewis, the pretty and loveable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lewis of 4733 Voltaire street, has won the honor of being one of the 100 per cent babies at the Beach.

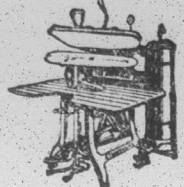

Little Miss White is the other winner, but we were unable to get her full name and address at the hour of going to press.

Mrs. J. W. Rankin is proving a most valuable assistant to her daughter, Miss Margaret Rankin, in the latter's duties as librarian at the Public Library on Abbott street.

ALONE

As a Maid Thinketh

Alone! Alone! All, all alone!
Alone with my thoughts—and thee!
No tongue can speak, nor fancy seek
The thoughts that come to me.

Alone! with the lilies at my feet!
No purer they than thee,
For my heart's thought; that knoweth naught
But thrust in the bliss to be.

Alone! with the moonlight shining full
On eyes that love enthroned!
If Love fail me, ah! better be
That I were ever alone!

Mr. and Mrs. Keckley from Almena, Kan., aunt and uncle of Mrs. Henry Eulberg of 4803 Long Branch avenue, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Near of 4934 Brighton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Copeland of 4056 Del Monte avenue are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the expectant arrival of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barr of New York, and their friend, Sergeant-Major T. S. Ferguson, at present stationed at the naval home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Smith and their two sons, Kingsley and Laurence Smith, former residents of Lotus street, Ocean Beach, but now of Los Angeles, are expected here soon to remain permanently. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Hamm of 4564 Long Branch avenue.

Mr. George Caldwell and family have moved into the Snuggery on Cable street, one of the fine Wheeler cottages.

H. H. Hopkins, contractor, formerly of Ocean Beach, is building a dandy new house for Mrs. I. M. Dowell, corner of Narragansett and Quirrot streets. He is also remodeling a house for Mrs. J. E. Hanford on Del Monte avenue.

We are indeed very glad to announce that Mrs. Mary E. Davis, the charming mother of Mrs. A. Hamm, is slowly improving. Mrs. Davis has been ill about two months.

Mr. B. Drumm, contractor and builder, who resides at 4939 Muir avenue, is keeping very busy these days fulfilling contracts in San Diego, as well as in Ocean Beach. Keep up the good work, Mr. Drumm, especially so in Ocean Beach.

A Crosby Reunion

A joyous company assembled at the D. C. Crosby home on Muir avenue last Monday, December 4, when Mrs. Crosby's mother, Kenneth W. Crosby and wife of Boston, another brother, G. K. Crosby and wife of San Diego; also a sister, Mrs. E. J. Baker, and husband of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, met once more to "talk it over." Miss E. C. Rideout, also a Crosby, is of the household. Another brother, L. G. Crosby and wife, of St. Johns, New Brunswick, should have been here, but were delayed. They will arrive later. In this family of eight, there has not yet been a loss.

Mr. Rextrew is building a new house for Mrs. Calland on Voltaire street, between Cable and Bacon streets, which, according to the plans, will be a credit to the place.

The "Crawford House" on the boulevard is being improved with a new roof and other repairs, getting ready for the expected influx of tourists.

Our new addition, Chris Homeyer, who purchased the corner at Cable and Voltaire streets and installed a rotary bakery, is planning more improvements to meet the demands of his business.

Mr. Cole of 4915 Muir avenue, who is in the hospital sick with typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Mrs. M. Mehling of 4929 Muir avenue has gone to Chicago to attend the funeral of her mother.

Charlie Hammond is building another house on the corner of Bacon and Brighton streets. He has other lots yet to improve. Keep a-goin'.

William Ross of the boulevard, who has been for some time past at the Paradise Sanitarium, has so much improved that he expects to come home soon. We will be pleased to see him again.

Mrs. M. E. Hiatt of 4915 Cape May avenue recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burt of the Fern Courts, on Narragansett avenue, Mrs. Mark Hiatt and son Lisle of Portland, Ore., Mrs. C. Underwood and daughter Mary of San Diego. A most delicious chicken dinner was served.

Miss Tillie Froelich of Los Angeles is spending a few days with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Richards of 4873 Niagara avenue.

Mrs. H. G. Myers of Santa Barbara, Calif., is here for a few days looking after her property on Eberts street and Coronado avenue.

Miss Laura Peterman of San Diego has been visiting Miss Margaret Iiams of Newport avenue.

H. G. Bourquin and family of Superior, Wis., are at the Brighton Apartments on Brighton avenue and expect to locate here permanently.

Miss Grace I. Taylor, who enjoyed a very pleasant visit during Thanksgiving week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Taylor of 1869 Cable street, has returned to her duties as a schoolteacher at Valley Center, Calif.

The first and third Mondays of each month are business meeting nights at the O. B. Chamber of Commerce, and your presence is earnestly requested. Be a Beach booster!

D. A. Bates is busy broadcasting notices that the Ocean Beach Lumber Company has changed hands.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Davis of 1821 Cable street returned last Monday from a very pleasant three weeks' visit with their children in Los Angeles. Mrs. Ed Kranch, their daughter, and her little daughter Betty accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Davis for a couple of weeks' stay in Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Gruenewalt is a very busy lady these days, attending to her household duties as well as to her many pleased customers in her dainty little store on Abbott street.

Miss Marie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Moore of 4762 Del Monte avenue, is slowly recovering from a bad cut on her foot which she sustained while returning from school.

Albert N. Kingsbury, cashier of the Liberty Trust Company of St. Louis, Mo., is spending a short vacation with his family on Cable street and Coronado avenue.

Mrs. L. H. Martin has sent in the following kind letter:

"Oh, yes, the old saying is that women can advertise faster than anything else! Oh, no! No more of that for me. We've passed that now. This new, progressive little paper, The Beach News, certainly gets it, and the glad tidings now regularly reaches us, so that we have such a beautiful way to communicate and are able to receive all the good news at our door. We most willingly subscribe for the splendid paper, hoping that everybody else will do the same and give their hearty support to 'Our Katherine.'"

Mrs. Martin, I sincerely thank you for your very friendly remarks.

Mrs. W. T. Shuman and son, Herbert, who resided at the "Spindrift" while here, have gone back to their home in Denver, Colo.

Our champion Ford salesman, Bert Schneider of Voltaire street, took his family for a round trip to Los Angeles recently.

"Zip" Pinson is preparing to improve the interior of his Beach barbershop for the benefit of his patrons and the general public.

Clarence R. Smith died last Monday at his late home on Lawrence street, Point Loma, aged 48 years.

Lillian Phillips of 2272 Soto street won the third prize at the barbecue recently conducted by the Mission Bay Oil Company.

One of the most picturesque views of Ocean Beach is obtained from the new residence now being constructed for Mrs. Ida M. Dowell on top of the ridge about in a line with Niagara avenue.

KATHERINE.

Church News

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. Frederic J. Stoetzel, Pastor

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., morning worship at 11 and evening service at 7:30.

The sermon subject of the morning will be: "Submerging Self." Mrs. and progressive plumber, is moving H. R. Sylvester, a pupil of Mrs. L. L. Rowan, will sing "The Living God," by O'Hara.

Tickets are being sold for the chicken dinner and musical program of Tuesday evening, December 12. Harry Turner will play the saxophone and Mrs. Turner the violin, accompanied by Mrs. William England of San Diego. Mrs. Sylvester will sing "Deest Thou Know That Fair Land?" by Thomas; "Thou Art So Like a Flower," by Chadwick; "Five Little Heads," by Bischoff, and "The Living God," by O'Hara.

Come and enjoy a good dinner and a real sociable time. Tickets, 60 cents for adults.

Come, ye singers, join the chorus and help make our Christmas sing a joyous one. Come to our practice Monday evening at the Congregational Church, 7:30-sharp.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF OCEAN BEACH

Rev. Rella E. Brown, Pastor

Mrs. Emma E. Rankin, superintendent of the Bible school, will conduct a story hour at the church on Friday afternoon at 2:30. All boys and girls up to 12 years of age are invited. Parents and others who may feel interested to hear Mrs. Rankin are welcome. Those who know her do not doubt her special gift in narration and description. And the stories will be true stories.

Mrs. Brown's energetic class of girls (the Bethany Class) will have a cake and candy sale next week (Saturday afternoon), the time and place to be announced later. The proceeds of the sale will go to help furnish their new classroom, toward which they already have a neat sum contributed.

Next Sunday the newly-organized ladies' quartet will sing both morning and evening. Their first appearance and selection last Sunday morning made a very favorable impression. The four ladies are: Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Brown.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, his topic being "Who Is Willing?" In the evening at 7:30 the pastor will speak briefly on a present-day application of the eternal truth of the Gospel, and a number of special features will be introduced into the program, musical and otherwise. We now have better accommodation for the larger attendance on recent Sundays, and the new heating radiators have been installed. The Young People's Union convenes at 6:30. Edna Bishop is the leader. The Bible School meets at 9:45 a. m., with classes for all ages. All who do not attend a Sunday school elsewhere are cordially invited to become members of this school.

The entrance to our church is by the north door for a few weeks yet until the seating for the main room is installed. The seats have been ordered from Chicago and are promised to be placed for us before Christmas.

Our Sunday School Conference met Tuesday night. Plans for the Christmas program were perfected. The entertainment will be on Friday night, December 22.

THE COMFORTS OF SECURITY

One of the greatest causes for thankfulness experienced by the citizen, and to which many never give a thought, is peace and security.

Our country is free from war and social disorders, and a few policemen, firemen and traffic men keep order and protection in each community.

Our banking system is so perfectly adjusted that no one worries about their deposits or their little savings or about almost any investment.

The citizen, sleeping peacefully in his bed at home, gets a great hunk of enjoyment knowing that he has fire protection and insurance.

In all towns and cities are equipments that are constantly being improved for his benefit, and, if a fire breaks out, it is usually stopped.

On top of this, he knows that state fire insurance commissioners are bending every energy to see that insurance companies are kept sound.

The greatest asset of the average citizen is that he works and sleeps with a great umbrella of security spread over him by the government, co-operating with private industries, which seek to protect his every interest.

It is thus we revel in the comforts of security.

CARD OF THANKS

The editor of The Beach News hereby desires to express publicly his sincere thanks to the Board of Trustees of the O. B. Union Congregational church, and its pastor, Rev. Frederick J. Stoegel, for their individual and combined effort in concluding to place the large total of 100 subscriptions on The Beach News mailing list.

The board of trustees is composed of Miss Mary E. Brose, A. C. Shepherd, W. W. Roberts, William H. Cul-mer and John Christenson. Their highly complimentary decision is deeply appreciated and will very likely prove greatly beneficial to all concerned.

THE JUNIOR HIGH

The board of education has under consideration the selection of a location for a new Junior High School, and a committee from the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce is working most energetically to secure its allotment for this section. All of the parents and the citizens of the Beaches and the entire Point Loma Peninsula, could help the committee wonderfully by a concerted effort toward the much-deserved object.

TO HELP THE NEEDY

A committee from the Elks, headed by W. E. Benbough, is making the rounds of the entire Beach district to discover any destitute people in order that Santa Claus shall not pass them by. Baskets of good things are being prepared to make the Yuletide holidays a happy occasion for the poor and needy wherever found in this section.

ABOUT THAT BRAIN TWISTER

The contest begun in the initial number of The Beach News, for the benefit of boys and girls, as well as elder folks, tending toward securing a suitable name for the half-dozen new cement bungalows owned by Mr. Charles M. Wheeler at Cable street and Orchard avenue, has resulted in a very spirited competition.
The following titles for the property have already been sent in and the contest remains open another week:

"Miramar Court," by Charles S.
Moore; "Alta Crest," by Rose Morrison; "Ocean View Bluffs," by Marie E. Moore; "Ocean Crest Court," by Mrs. C. S. Moore; "Sunset Crest," by Walter Moore; "Seaplane Row,"
"Nirvana," by Mrs. Agnes G. Ellis;
"Aladdin Apartments," "Buena Vista Bungalows," "Crescendo," "Carbo-cha Crest" and "The Wheeler Group."

Send along your suggestions, with your name and address, in order that the winner can be publicly announced in these columns.

PRIZES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Here's a chance for all the boys and girls of Ocean Beach to win worthwhile prizes.

T. H. Harrison, the able and wide-awake manager of the New Bath House in the Benbough building, announces in a big display advertisement in another column a series of prizes for boys and girls.

Commencing today and continuing until May 15, 1923, the popular proprietor of the New Bath House will give a ticket with each 5-cent purchase, and to those getting the largest number of tickets. FREE passes will be given to the bath house, the duration of time of the passes being rated according to the allotment of the prizes. For instance, there will be prizes for boys and prizes for girls, and there will be a whole lot of 'em,
as you will readily see by immediately reading the ad, which contains full details plainly outlined.

Get your friends to save their tickets for you, when purchasing cigars, cigarettes, candy or cold drinks at the New Bath House, and secure one of the prizes. The bath house is open from 6 a. m. to 11 p. m.
and the best of service and attendance are afforded to all patrons.

REMEMBER, we sell our sewing thread at 5 cents a spool.

Stores next Tuesday and Wednesday (December 12 and 13): One bar of Palm Olive Soap, 5 cents, limiting two bars to a customer.

Little Miss Sparks Gets Reward

A bright and pretty little miss of 8 years, Louise Sparks, daughter of C. R. Sparks of 2021 Ocean boulevard, has a tidy sum of money stored away for her Christmas shopping.
Last Sunday she found an Airedale dog which had been advertised as lost by the owner living at 3908 Ibis street, San Diego. The frolicsome puppy bore the license tag number 635, and Mr. Sparks got in communication with the owner of the stray canine, resulting in a nice monetary reward being given to little Louise, who is indulging in delightful dreams about the coming of Santa Claus. Her father is an expert linotype operator for the Union forces.

Editor of The Beach News:

We have read in the "Union" lately about a law that was to be strin-gently enforced to prohibit shooting wild fowl in Mission Bay, but still every Sunday morning we are disturbed by the same old bang, bang, bang of these lawbreakers, and complaints are heard of stray shot striking others besides. Where are the police?

ONE HUNDRED AT A CLIP

That's the High Water Mark Hit in a Deluge of Subscriptions

With the opening of *The Beach
News* subscription list last week there has been a veritable deluge of subscriptions pouring in from all sides.
The high water mark was made by Rev. Frederic J. Stoetzel, representing the board of trustees of the Union Congregational Church, the several members composing that greatly progressive body recently agreeing to place one hundred subscriptions for The Beach News as a most material and substantial evidence of their appreciation of the new community weekly paper.

The names on the long list of subscribers are being duly furnished by the energetic and efficient pastor of the Union Congregational Church on behalf of the vigilant board of trusttees and the enthusiastic members of the congregation, while the addresses of the subscribers embrace about every section of this glorious country.

The Beach News feels highly honored and extends heartfelt thanks to all concerned in arriving at such a happy conclusion.

ANNOUNCEMENT

What, When and Why

Why haven't you signed the special petition for the paving of all the lower Ocean Beach streets?

Why is it that an extra conductor has been keeping tab on all the passengers getting on and off of the O. B. cars?

Why not get your sidewalk paved before the Vrooman act gets you?

What's the matter? You are not a member of the wide-awake O. B.
Chamber of Commerce.

What's the cause of the delay in lowering the tracks on the main street into town?

Why are the sections at cross streets on the new "Fremont" boulevard still in bad shape?

Why isn't a standard government thermometer placed in the fire engine house where everybody can see it?

EXCHANGE YOUR WAR STAMPS

"It is to be hoped that every person who can do so will exchange War Savings Stamps, soon to fall due, for Treasury Savings Certificates," said Postmaster H. K. Rankin yesterday. "The large amount of money invested and the great number of persons who purchased War Savings Stamps showed that the people of the country could save money when the necessity arose. Now, if they will take the money they saved when they bought stamps to aid the government in the prosecution of the war and buy Treasury Savings Certificates, they will demonstrate that the thrift lessons of the war have not been without effect."

"The holders of War Savings Stamps have seen investments of about $20.50 grow to $25 in five years, and larger amounts in the same proportion. They can see the same thing repeated if they reinvest in Treasury Savings Certificates. Interest accumulates at the rate of 4 per cent each year, compounded semi-annually. These savings certificates are exempt from the normal federal income tax, and from all state and local taxation (except estate and inheritance taxes), and may be held to the amount of $5000, maturity value, for each issue, by every member of a family. They are backed by the credit of the United States government and afford an easy and sure method of saving."

War Savings Stamps can be cashed at any time at their full value plus interest should an occasion arise necessitating a small amount of cash. Go to the postoffice now and trade in your green 1918 War Savings Stamps at their full value ($5) for these new government bonds.

"Will" Thomas Back on the Job

For the past fortnight or so, W. A. Thomas, the major-domo of Faber's Little Cash Grocery, has been enjoying a well-earned vacation, touring California for hundreds of miles around with the members of his family.

"Booster Bill" combined business with pleasure on his tours, for he's the sort of a progressive citizen who keeps his eyes and ears open to everything tending to the benefit and upbuilding of his home town. And he's not afraid of getting out on the firing line for the promotion of the many and varied improvements needed for the community. Besides the valuable time and extra energy he puts forth, Mr. Thomas "digs down into his jeans" and at a personal loss furnishes the necessary wherewith to further several schemes for the enhancement of the Beach interests in general.

'Tis true 'tis pity, and pity 'tis, 'tis true, that Mr. Thomas, as a most progressive president of the O. B. Chamber of Commerce, often lacks the support that should be accorded him by those most directly affected in the business affairs of the community, with the result that many good things fail in the consummation so devoutly desired.

Wake up, fellow citizens, and put your foot forward for a bigger and better Ocean Beach!

MANY BOOKS CIRCULATED

Miss Margaret Rankin, who is most deservedly a great favorite with all patrons of the O. B. Public Library, authorizes the statement that 3756 books were circulated from that worthy institution during the month of November. This is an increase of 640 over the number distributed for the same period last year.

MY COTTAGE BY THE SEA

By Harry D. Colan, Ocean Beach.

Where the voice of living waters
Bring their message unto me,
I can hear your music calling—
Ocean's calling me to thee.

Calling me in loving murmurs
With the coming of the tide—
Azure blue, and dancing waters
Break upon the lea-ward side.

Where the silver strand is waiting,
Waiting, as it were, a bride
For her lover—for your coming
And your kiss, oh, ocean tide.

Then receding, as if resting,
Sea-ward, from the bride you won,
You are calling to assure her
Your return with morning's sun.

And at night, when elfin shadows
Dance by starlight on your sea,
Then I listen to your calling—Soothing slumbers come to me.

When the storms disturb your waters,
Waves are high with crested spray—
Awe-inspiring is your grandeur
In your great majestic sway.

Oh, you dear and grand old ocean,
Sun-kissed waters, I love thee,
And your voice will always call me
To my cottage by the sea.

Do You Know?

That the cross streets in Ocean Beach are named after famous authors?

That Ocean Beach is greatly in need of larger and better library quarters?

That the calendar folks are a little backward in coming forward with their 1923 calendars this year?

That several good sites are being suggested for a community house?

That you ought to join the Chamber of Commerce at once, pronto?

That there's about an even chance that Ocean Beach will get a new Junior High School?

OH, YES, by the way, folks, do you know that the Ocean Beach Gardens, the big bunches of bananas, the poultry yards, three lots, two houses, are for sale? Don't look for a job; can make good money here. Come and see for yourself. Besides, have two nice level building lots, all kinds of chickens, cockerels, laying white leghorn pullets, hatching eggs. 4734 Long Branch avenue.

Every state in the Union, the Dominion of Canada, Mexico, England, Germany, France, Holland and other foreign countries already have representation on our subscription books. Is your name among the list of Ocean Beach subscribers? The subscription price is only fifty cents a year.

The three monkey idols of the Chinese may be somewhat compared with the general run of editors who are presumed not to hear, see, or talk.

OCEAN BEACH LIBRARY

Miss Margaret Rankin, our able and well-liked librarian, says that the people of Ocean Beach will be pleased to know that the library is one of the growing institutions at the Beach. The circulation of November showed an increase of 640 books over November, 1921, an increase of 640 books over November, 1921; the daily average for the month was 304 books. It is but a very short time before the branch must seek more room and our aim is a complete library building of our own which will meet the needs of this growing community. Let us all work to that end.

A very attractive order of books has just been received at the branch. The following will be most popular. Non-Fiction—First Course in General Science (Barber), Experimental Wireless Stations (Edelman), Our Short Story Writers (Williams).

Fiction—Path of the King (Buchan), Elephant God (Cassery), Charles Rex (Dell), Abbé Pierre (Hudson), Cat's Paw (Lincoln), Pee-wee (MacHarg), Green Goddess (Miln) Two Shall Be Born (Pemler), Evil Shepherd (Oppenheim), Laugh-ter Limited (Putman), Brand Blotters (Paine); Bucky O'Connor, Crooked Trails and Straight, Daughter of the Dons (Paine); Wyoming (Paine), Three Lovers (Swinerton), Minister of Grace (Widdemer).

VERY HIGHLY PLEASED

December 5, 1922.

Mr. Kirk Smith,
Editor of The Beach News.

Dear Sir: We were very highly pleased with The Beach News and it certainly meets the need of the people. By the way, we have received quite a number of names for our bungalows. With best wishes,

MR. AND MRS. C. M. WHEELER.

Special sale at Faber's Grocery Stores next Tuesday and Wednesday (December 12 and 13): One bar of Palm Olive Soap, 5 cents, limiting two bars to a customer.

NEW SPEED LAW IN SIGHT

It is announced that measures designed to curb automobile speeding and reduce the number of deaths by automobile accidents in California will be introduced in the next State Legislature.

The following amendments to the motor vehicle laws are proposed: Making reckless or drunken drivers who cause deaths guilty of first degree murder and subject to the death penalty.

Placing governors on all automobiles except those used by fire and police departments.

Prohibiting youths under 18 from operating motor vehicles.

Compelling closer examination of persons before they are granted auto licenses.

Compelling judges to send persons found guilty of excessive speeding to jail and eliminating fines in the more flagrant violations.
